

GREEKS WERE MAKING MERRY

CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS BY THE DISCHARGE OF FIRE-ARMS.

A dozen shots ringing out on the cool night air shortly before eleven o'clock last night startled the neighborhood near the court house, and started Sheriff Owens on a hunt for the shooters. There were two shots, then four shots, then a fusillade. Then came Sheriff Owens on a hunt for the shooters. There were two shots, then four shots, then a fusillade. Then came Sheriff Owens on a hunt for the shooters.

Sheriff Owens paced diligently over the hills, and finally came upon a crowd of revellers, who were drinking and feasting, and making merry. They paused in the midst of their hilarity at the entrance of the sheriff, and looked alarmed when he asked the cause of the shooting. The men were Greeks, and they confided to the officer that it was Christmas—that is, according to their calendar, and that they had been discharging blank cartridges to make a noise.

TONOPAH HAD A THEATRICAL TREAT

CROWDED HOUSE APPLAUDS FINE COMPANY IN GOOD PLAY.

That Tonopah appreciates a good thing in the way of a theatrical treat was evidenced by the crowd that filled the big Eagles Pavilion last night to witness the first performance of the Georgia Harper Company. The attraction was the delightful play, "Nell Gwynne—Sweet Nell of Old Drury." Miss Harper can act. She gave a charming impersonation of droll, dashing Nell, and captured her audience as easily as she did the king. Whether as the orange girl depicting the familiar figures at the court to his majesty, whom she did not know, or as Nell of Old Drury, giving largesses to the poor and snubbing the high born ladies and nobles, she was equally delightful.

She held her lines prettily, and was charmingly natural in her every movement. Her jolly good humor was unaffectedly real, and she made us understand the hold that sweet Nell had on King Charles. Her assumption of the wig and gown of Sir Jeffereys, and her use of them was daintily funny, without a touch of the grotesque, and when she said: "Gentlemen, to hell with all of you," we said so, too, and loved her for her merry mood.

Her wit was bright and keen, and rolled from her tongue with the ease of a courtier spilling bonnets after dinner. Her bearing was the essence of grace, and her manner at all times captivating.

Joseph Detrick, who played Charles the Second gave a splendid impersonation of the weak, good natured king. He was straight and erect as became royalty, and his love for the dashing Nell was just patronizing enough to make Nell love him more. What little there is to the part, he made of it. Melvin Mayo was good as Sir Roger Fairfax, and at times, strong. His enunciation and delivery are good, but he weakened a little too much when his game was up. Lucella Waters played the catfish Duchess of Portsmouth, and she made a good cat of her. The rest of the cast was acceptable.

Tonight the bill is "The Little Minister," one of Barrie's daintiest comedies, and there is a great part in it for Miss Harper, and another for Mr. Detrick.

ANNUAL MEETING TONOPAH MINING

REPORT SHOWS THE PROPERTY TO BE IN FLOURISHING CONDITION.

The annual meeting of the Tonopah Mining took place yesterday afternoon, resulting in the re-election of the directors as follows:

H. C. Brougher, J. L. Butler, Henry Anderson, R. P. Stenson, T. L. Oddie, J. J. McQuillan and W. J. Douglass. The report of the secretary showed a balance with the banks of $63,103.12, and the amount due for ores $16,776.94, making a total of $79,880.06. The total number of tons shipped during the year, from which returns have been received, was 2343, gross value per ton being $68.51, making a total gross value of $160,520.85. In addition to this there were 665 tons, which will net about $12,000. The cost of treatment and transportation per ton was $20.825, making the total $48,791.78 and showing the net value per ton $47.6877.

The report states that the greater part of the development work was done on the lower levels during the year, with the exception of the 435 level, where there was considerable development work east and south of the shaft. On the Brougher vein, north of the shaft, there is considerable ore in sight. Very little stopping was done above this level during the past year. Since the last report, it is stated, a new body of ore was cut on the intermediate (between the 435 and 535 levels) on the Brougher vein near the east end line. Most of the ore was taken from this body during the year. The report concludes:

"The north crosscut on the 825 level was advanced 450 feet, making a total length of 850 feet. About 500 feet north of the shaft in this crosscut, a vein from 14 to 40 feet in width was cut. On this vein a drift was run 300 feet in a westerly direction, which was all in quartz, assaying from two to seventeen dollars. At a distance of 200 feet from where the vein was first cut, a crosscut was made for a distance of 60 feet, showing the vein to be at least 40 feet wide. At this place a station was cut and a 5x6 Vulcan Geared hoist was installed for the purpose of sinking a winze in the footwall. This winze is now down about 60 feet. It is our intention to continue this winze to a depth of 100 feet, where a crosscut will be run and at the same time the winze continued down 100 feet deeper without delay for further prospecting. We are also drifting from this level on the vein which is now about 100 feet west of the winze and on the completion of another 100 feet a crosscut will be run at that point. This vein is much larger than any encountered in the mine and it is our opinion that it will increase in value in depth.

"In conclusion, will say on the whole, that the mine looks as well if not better than ever, since encountering the vein on the lower level below the intrusion."

After the meeting of the stockholders, the directors met and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: H. C. Brougher, president; W. J. Douglass, secretary, and N. Nelson, superintendent.

TURNING OUT THE BEST WORK

The bindery of the Bonanza is turning out the best work in the city, and it is giving such great satisfaction that anyone who has his work done there once, never goes anywhere else. The plant is the finest and most complete, not only in the State, but this side of San Francisco. We can turn out all kinds of work that is demanded in the offices of lawyers, brokers, promoters, mining companies, or for any other kind of business, and we guarantee satisfaction in every respect. One trial will be sufficient to establish the truth of this statement. It pays to go where only the best kind of work is done, and it pays to patronize home industry.

BUTLER HAS RATTLING BILL

The Butler theater has another rattling good bill this week, which was begun last night. The house was packed at the first performance and comfortably filled at the second. The best film is "A Race for Millions," and it naturally appeals to Tonopah for the reason that it has to do with a mine. The prospector discovers a rich find on the claim he has staked, and the villain shoots him, and holds captive the heroine, while he makes for the recorder's office to record the claim which he has stolen. But the hero gets free, and he and the girl jump into an automobile and race with the train on which the villain is riding. There is the race for the fortune, and the auto beats the train, and the hero shoots and kills the villain, and everybody is happy, save the villain, and maybe he is, too. But it is great work.

"The Redwood Industry of California," is another great hit, and so is "Little Red Riding Hood," and the "Adventures of Love." The illustrated songs are "Poor Old Girl," and "Take Me With You in Your Dreams." It is one of the best shows ever.

MONTANA TONOPAH ANNUAL REPORT

The annual meeting of the Montana Tonopah was held last evening when the board of directors were re-elected for the ensuing year. The reports for the year which has passed showed the mine in a fine condition, and that the new mill had done more than was promised. The reduction averaged more than 85 per cent.

MARITAL TROUBLES ARE BEING AIRED

COSLETT VERSUS COSLETT CASE ON IN THE DISTRICT COURT.

The troubles of the Cosletts are being aired in the district court in the suit of Mrs. Coslett for a divorce from Mr. Coslett. The proceedings occupied the entire day, and there will be more of them today. Both sides have witnesses whose stories differ materially as to who was right and who was wrong. There was testimony to the effect that the defendant had called his wife names, and C. A. Richards told of receiving a letter by mistake which was addressed to Mrs. Coslett. In this, the husband referred to his wife's pale green face, which he couldn't shut out from his view even when he was in bed and pulled the covers over his head. Mrs. Coslett had told the witness that she would never live with her husband, and that if he came near her, she would kill him as she could not control her temper.

While A. McLeod was on the stand just before the noon recess, he admitted on cross-examination that he was armed. He said that he carried a gun for the reason that Coslett had threatened his life. Judge O'Brien directed that it should be seen to that no one came into court in the afternoon armed, and there was no further trouble on that score.
